Overview

The Junior Ambassador Scholarship Contest seeks to reach students who are dedicated to the positive promotion of the Weimar Area Chamber of Commerce and the Gedenke! festival. They will work on a volunteer basis for 12 months and will serve as liaisons between the current Weimar Community, incoming community members and the young adult population. The Junior Ambassador's main job is to be a helpful, friendly face for the community while learning and earning invaluable experiences.

Qualifications

Eligible candidates include full time students who are currently enrolled in the 10th through 12th grades, between the ages of 15 and 18 years, at Weimar High School. A minimum grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 is required. The candidate must be in good standing within the community and school, promoting a positive image and positive moral character. The following content must be submitted by Wednesday, April 13, 2022 by 4:30 pm to become eligible for admission.
