Scholarship Application Form

The Fayette County Go-Texan Committee is looking to award scholarships to high school senior candidates who reside in Fayette County that desire to continue education beyond high school. Scholarships will not only be based on academic achievements but school and community involvement. Scholarships will be awarded based on historical involvement in FFA and/or 4-H (minimum of 2 years in high school), community service and commitment to helping others. We are looking for well-rounded applicants and those that demonstrate the ability to excel in a post-secondary academic environment or exhibit the desire to gain vocational training at a Technical College or Vocational School.
